USER REPORT

The company Bio Eden Lyfe Srl ( individual operator Ciobanu Maria) has been using the complex Biolaz-Oberon Dianel 22 S - iON, model 1010043 with the software Dianel Pro -iON

Our organization is engaged in nutrition and dietetics, alternative medicine, nutritional supplements indication of, bowen, bioresonance testing.

The main activity is in the field of health.

During the operation of Dianel 22S -iON patients tested with the device for 30 monthly.

The most common diseases or imbalances detected by biofeedback device were digestive, hormonal and neurovegetative.

Diagnosis conducted by biofeedback reported the clinical outcome was confirmed by clinical results in 65%

The advantages they offer through bio-resonance device are as follows

- Portable device with autonomous power source
- Software Dianel very structured
- Full database archiving
- Administrator access to the metering tests
- Complexity of information
- Translated software (incomplete) in Romanian.

Deficiencies bio-resonance device

- Wires connected to the electrodes of inferior quality
- Separate licensing to Dianel Pro - iON Dianel

Negative comments there! We do not remarkable suggestions, the latest enhancements to biofeedback devices are great, the design is very beautiful!

We expect a soft Dianel iON Pro ... and fully translated in Romanian.
